Students of PHS
Pleasanton High School
Pleasanton, Kansas

Dear Student Body:

This school year of 1952-53 has now come to a close. For some of us it marks the end of our high school careers, while for others, it is only the beginning. Each of us has his own special memories of high school days to cherish through the years and we, the annual staff, hope this HILLTOP will serve to keep these memories vivid enough that it will seem they happened only yesterday.

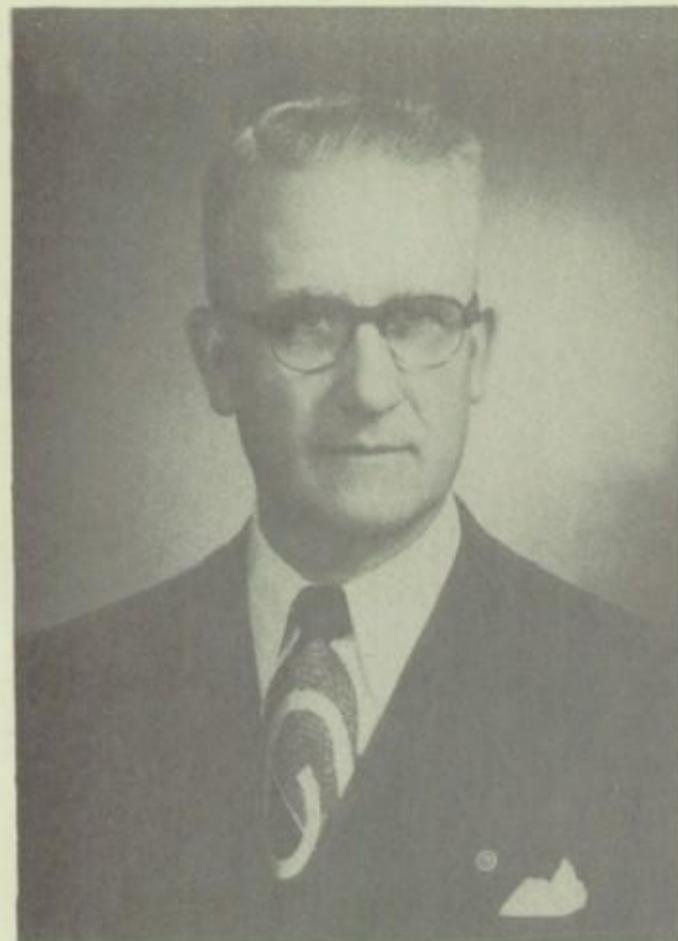

With COMMUNICATIONS as our theme, we present to you the different organizations, activities, and social functions which have taken place here at PHS. We are ever mindful of the many hours spent in study, work, and research and how can we easily forget the worry which plagued us throughout these tough times. Looking back, we find our accomplishments have been met with approval and now we are eagerly looking toward new horizons.

Through the same degree of effort the staff has diligently strived to perfect a true picture of school life on the hill, 1952-53. May this HILLTOP help you to "communicate" with past memories in years to come.

Sincerely yours,

Maryanna Wuttke

ADMINISTRATIVE

*Superintendent
J. B. Forsyth*

Dear Students:

Our nation places greater faith in education than any other country. Every American child is given the opportunity to grow intellectually and spiritually in order that he will become a good citizen. He in turn will then perpetuate the everlasting cycle of education.

Your school days are not only your happiest ones, but they are the fullest and richest - - in experience, companionship, opportunity, and all worth-while activities.

May the 1953 Hilltop recall to each of you the pleasant memories of the days spent on the Hill.

Sincerely Yours,

J. B. Forsyth

Clerk
DONALD F. ELLIS

Treasurer
MARSHALL H. SHORTER, Jr.

We consider it outstanding and noteworthy that the three men who are now serving as our Board of Education, are all former graduates from this school. We feel that this makes them have a closer tie with all those concerned with P. H. S., including students, faculty, and patrons.

We consider it a special privilege to extend our sincere and deep appreciation to Mr. Don Ellis, Mr. Burt Waring, Jr., and Mr. Marshall Shorter, Jr., for the interest they have shown and for the full co-operation they have given our school.

HILLTOP REPORT

This page of the annual is designed to remind you, in years to come, of things you witnessed in national and world news this school year of 1952-1953.

The Korean conflict has remained a serious threat. We've watched the peace talks with hope, only to see them fail time after time. Reports of casualties still pour in; the truce talks have been discontinued and the stalemate remains the same, which emphasizes the necessity for a continued build-up of strength in a chaotic and confused world.

On the national scene, this was election year; the American people were to choose their leader for the next four years. Two able candidates, Adlai Stevenson and Dwight D. Eisenhower headed the Democrat and Republican tickets respectively. The American people, sensing the need for a change, elected Dwight D. Eisenhower, the first Republican to occupy the Whitehouse in twenty years, thus ending another era in American history.

The death of Premier Joseph Stalin was an unexpected incident which further heightened the feeling of insecurity among peaceloving citizens throughout the world. Georgi Malenkov became successor to Stalin, resulting in an apparent shake-down among communist leaders.

The year 1953 has been designated as coronation year in England, with Queen Elizabeth becoming the reigning monarch. Although the Dowager Queen Mary passed away unexpectedly, the coronation will be an event of the month of June as originally planned.

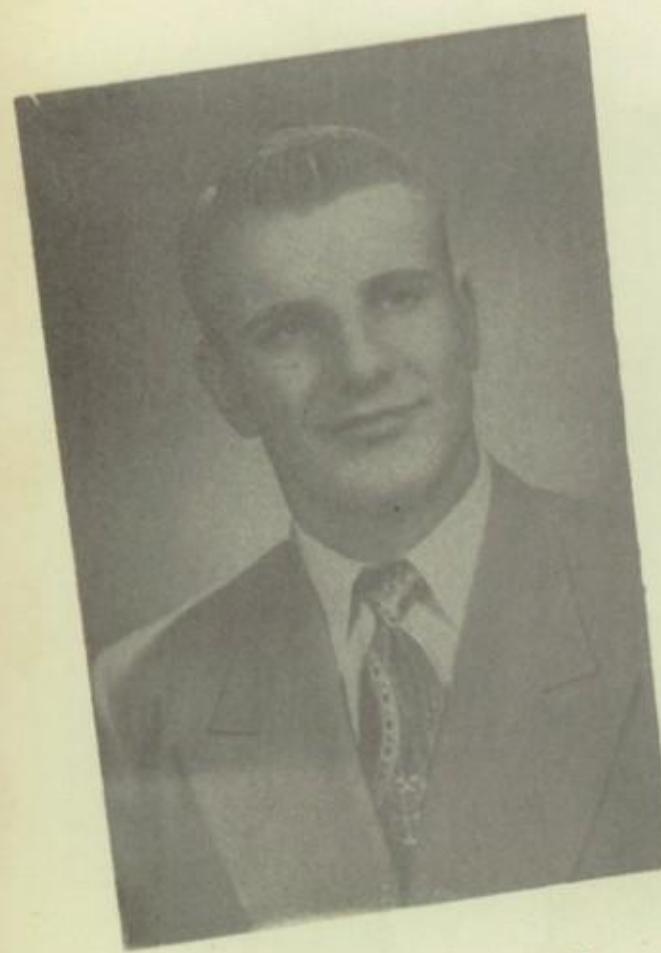

Turning back to the national scene, items which have received a great deal of comment throughout the past school year were as follows: The widespread flu epidemic; new atomic explosions, the thirty-fourth having taken place in mid-March; and several air clashes between communist and American aircraft over supposedly neutral zones.

Thus, a school year passes; others will come and go. News will be repeated, and each will have its distinguished incidents. These outstanding events will always be associated in our minds with '52 and '53 at Pleasanton High School.

CLASS HISTORY

MOTTO Endeavor to be what you desire to appear.

COLOR Blue and Silver

FLOWER White Rose

Dear Diary:

I am writing this at the conclusion of our high school days. As I look back over the entries which I have made in my dairy, I find that the years have been marked by some special occasions which we will always want to remember.

In our freshman year we chose as our leaders, president, Wallace Dunlap; vice-president, Maryanna Wuttke; secretary, Joan Black; treasurer, David Staton; and sponsor, Mr. Stegge.

We started the year by winning first in the magazine contest and second in the HILLTOP contest with Dee Bradley and Maryanna Wuttke as our candidates. We also came out ahead in the Turkey Sale. Harold Parker and Joan Black were the Carnival candidates for king and queen.

As sophomores we had a smaller class but displayed to the other classes what fine salesmen we were by winning the magazine contest. With this accomplishment to our credit, we chose Gerald Beth and Venita Clayton as our king and queen candidates for the HILLTOP. We chose Marvin Wortman and Donita Umphenour as our candidates for the Carnival. Mr. Stegge was our sponsor, with the class officers as follows: president, Harold Parker; vice-president, Naomi Jones; secretary, Maryanna Wuttke; treasurer, Wallace Dunlap.

We started our junior year with presenting the Junior Play, "Girls Are Like That". The junior - senior banquet theme was "The Show Boat", which was carried out in the best tradition of the Old South. After being unsuccessful our first two years, we succeeded in winning the HILLTOP contest in which George Dunn and Betty Morris were crowned king and queen. Candidates for the Carnival were David Staton and Doris Jean Burton. The officers this year were president, Ronnie Hoover; vice-president, George Dunn; secretary, Marvin Wortman; and treasurer, Donita Umphenour.

Our last year at PHS has arrived and some of us are glad, others are dreading it. We elected as our president, Dee Bradley; vice-president, Wallace Dunlap; secretary, David Staton; treasurer, Harold Parker. For HILLTOP king and queen we chose Wallace Dunlap and Marilouise Crosetto. We selected Ronnie Hoover and Shirley Waller to represent our class in the Carnival contest. Although our candidates were not crowned, we were proud of the competition we gave the other classes.

One of the biggest events of every senior year is the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. Three members of the senior class are chosen by the football squad for this honor. Those chosen this year were Joan Black, Doris Jean Burton-Black and Maryanna Wuttke. In a very close race Maryanna was named winner and crowned at the customary half-time ceremonies.

The Senior Play, "Forever True", was presented by an able cast and further proved the capability of our class.

Along with the other events of this our last year in PHS, we had several memorable parties. However, at press time we still had not experienced the events that climax our year, namely: "Senior Day", the junior-senior banquet, Baccalaureate and Commencement. If plans are any indication of success, our last few weeks in high school should rank high, and be remembered by all the members of the class.

So this last entry in my dairy ends the history of the class of '53. The next will be only what the future holds for each member of our class.

Betty Morris

CLASS WILL

Through careful consideration, extensive examinations, and practically no preparation at all by the most incompetent lawyers in captivity we drew up this last will and testament.

Doris Jean Black wills her way to get a man to the rest of the senior girls.

Joan Black bequeaths her "unargumentive nature" to Sharon Staton.

Dee Bradley wills his car-loads during noon hour to anyone whose car will hold them.

Marilouise Crosetto leaves her quiet nature to Donna Jones.

Wallace Dunlap wills his ability of getting his lessons to the Offutt twins.

George Dunn surrenders his version of "Grandma's Lye-Soap" to anyone who is man enough to handle it, he hasn't heard a thing in years.

Carl Heien wills his "Charles Atlas" stature to Merlyn Stuffings.

Bill Heien wills his ambition and alertness in class to anyone who can get by with it.

Ronnie Hoover wills his boistrousness to Lee Hudspeth.

Betty Morris bequeaths her disinterest in boys to Huberta Price.

Harold Parker will his ability to get by with sleeping in class to Lawrence (sleeping beauty) McLaughlin.

David Staton wills his pleasing disposition and effervescent personality to anyone that feels the need to these two traits.

Donita Umphenour leaves her wild and reckless ways to Mary Lou Callahan.

Shirley Waller wills her ability behind a steering wheel to Sue Rittinghouse so she will be assured of passing the test for a drivers license.

Marvin Wortman relinquishes his trumpet to the proverbial Gabriel, so we can rest when he has study halls and can't find anything else to do for his own entertainment.

Maryanna Wuttke wills her accelerated efforts and racing motor to Joyce Wyant.

WE, the SENIOR CLASS of 1953 leave to:

Mr. Forsyth, the papers and grades from the test that he gave us in American History while Mr. Seal was away.

Mrs. Forsyth, the memories of our hard-worklng bookkeeping class.

Miss Miller, the few well-used book reports of the senior English class.

Miss Yencie, the knowledge that the senior girls are finally growing up ? ? ?

Mr. Stegge, a year's supply of chewing gum so he won't have to buy any before each game.

Mr. Washler, all the old candy that is left in our drawing boxes.

Mr. Crosetto, our copies of the following sheet music, "Down Yonder", "Tennessee Waltz", and his latest, "Glo-Worm".

Mr. Seal, a completed set of American History notebooks, representing the combined efforts of such accomplished scholars as, Bill Heien, Eugene Leonard, and George Dunn.

Harry Carpenter, all the autographs, both carved and scratched, on and in the building as a whole.

Freshman Class, our ability not to get the "Big-head" over things? ? ?

Sophomore Class, our ability to get their lessons quickly so they can read magazines the last twenty minutes of every study hall.

Junior class, the grand position of seniors in hopes they will get through the year without bursting as many hats as we have.

CLASS PROPHECY

Swami sees all, knows all, almost. The Ouija Board never lies, much. Here is a look at the future of this small, quiet, and unassuming group of seniors.

Marvin Wortman is the leader of the new jazz band "Marvin and his three Marvelous Marvels".

Shirley Waller, after years of hard training, is finally working in the movies - - - selling popcorn.

Carl Heien is now running a string of restaurants featuring "Carl's Better Bigger Burgers".

Bill Heien is a man of leisure. Last reports had him floating down the Maris des Cygnes on a barge.

Harold Parker is now raising "Purple Cows" for experimental purposes.

Eugene Leonard is now the owner and proprietor of a night club in Trading Post.

Betty Morris currently has an all night pickle-juice stand in Pleasanton.

George Dunn is now a famous song writer. His latest song is "Don't Worry About the Kindling, Ma; Here Comes Pa With a Load".

Margaret Purdy is the featured song and dance girl in Eugene's night club.

Dee Bradley is a professional football player. Last year he ripped off 987 yards from the N. L. Champs only to be penalized 90 days in the jug. The yardage belonged to a nearby textile factory.

Donita Umphenour is now running a gold fish hatchery in India.

Marilouise Crosetto is writing an advice to the lovelorn column.

David Staton always was sort of lazy. Recently he has been striking for shorter hours. Something like 40 minutes.

Wallace Dunlap is a famous author. His latest book is "Raw Hide", a thrilling murder mystery about a man who strangles his best friend for slapping him on his sunburned back.

Doris Jean Black is at home now playing "Red River Valley" and "Nola" to all the "Little Blacks".

Ronnie Hoover is running a summer camp for displaced South African Pygmies, Bushmen, and whatnot.

Maryanna Wuttke was a demonstrator for a new type atomic stove. The job was too much for her though and the poor girl went to pieces. Something about the stove blowing up.

Joan Black was running a monkey ranch in Arizona until she got tired of it and now it seems she can't get rid of it. Whenever she asks someone if they would like to buy a monkey ranch they reply "No Thanks, I can get along fine with a pair of pliers".

THIS YEAR AT P.H.S.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The freshman class proved to have a winning team this first year in P. H. S. We started our year by electing Lois Weller as class president; Carol Carpenter as vice-president; Sharon Stanton as secretary; and Judy Barnes as treasurer.

In the main event of the year, the HILLTOP contest, we displayed our team-work when Tommy Haley and Lois Weller were crowned king and queen. Our sponsor, Don Stegge, honored us with an extra party for winning this important contest.

The king and queen candidates for the Carnival were Kenneth Wilkerson and Donna Richards.

We have experienced a wonderful year as freshmen and we are looking forward eagerly to our sophomore year.

Tommy Haley

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The sophomore class started the year with a very large class of thirty-eight members with a determination to make our presence known around P. H. S.

We fought hard in the magazine contest, teamed with the juniors, but when the contest ended we were hosts to the winning freshman and senior team.

The first class party was a great success and a lot of fun for everyone. At the time of this writing our second party had not been planned, but we are all looking forward to a final get-together of the year.

Joe Patterson and Sara Mae Arnold were our candidates for yearbook king and queen. After narrowly losing the HILLTOP contest, our class was determined to win the Carnival contest, and Orville Johnson and Shirley Hoover were crowned king and queen.

Our class officers this year were: Jean Ward, president; Homer Jackson, vice-president; Joe Patterson, secretary; and Rose Nussbaum, treasurer. Mrs. Forsyth and Mr. Crosetto were our very capable sponsors.

So ends the sophomore year for the class of 1955, P. H. S.

Kay Herring

JUNIOR CLASS

The junior class, under the sponsorship of Miss Miller and Miss Yencic, felt that this was truly an eventful year.

The junior play, "Which One Shall He Marry," brought out distinctive individual talents of the class under the sponsorship of Miss Miller.

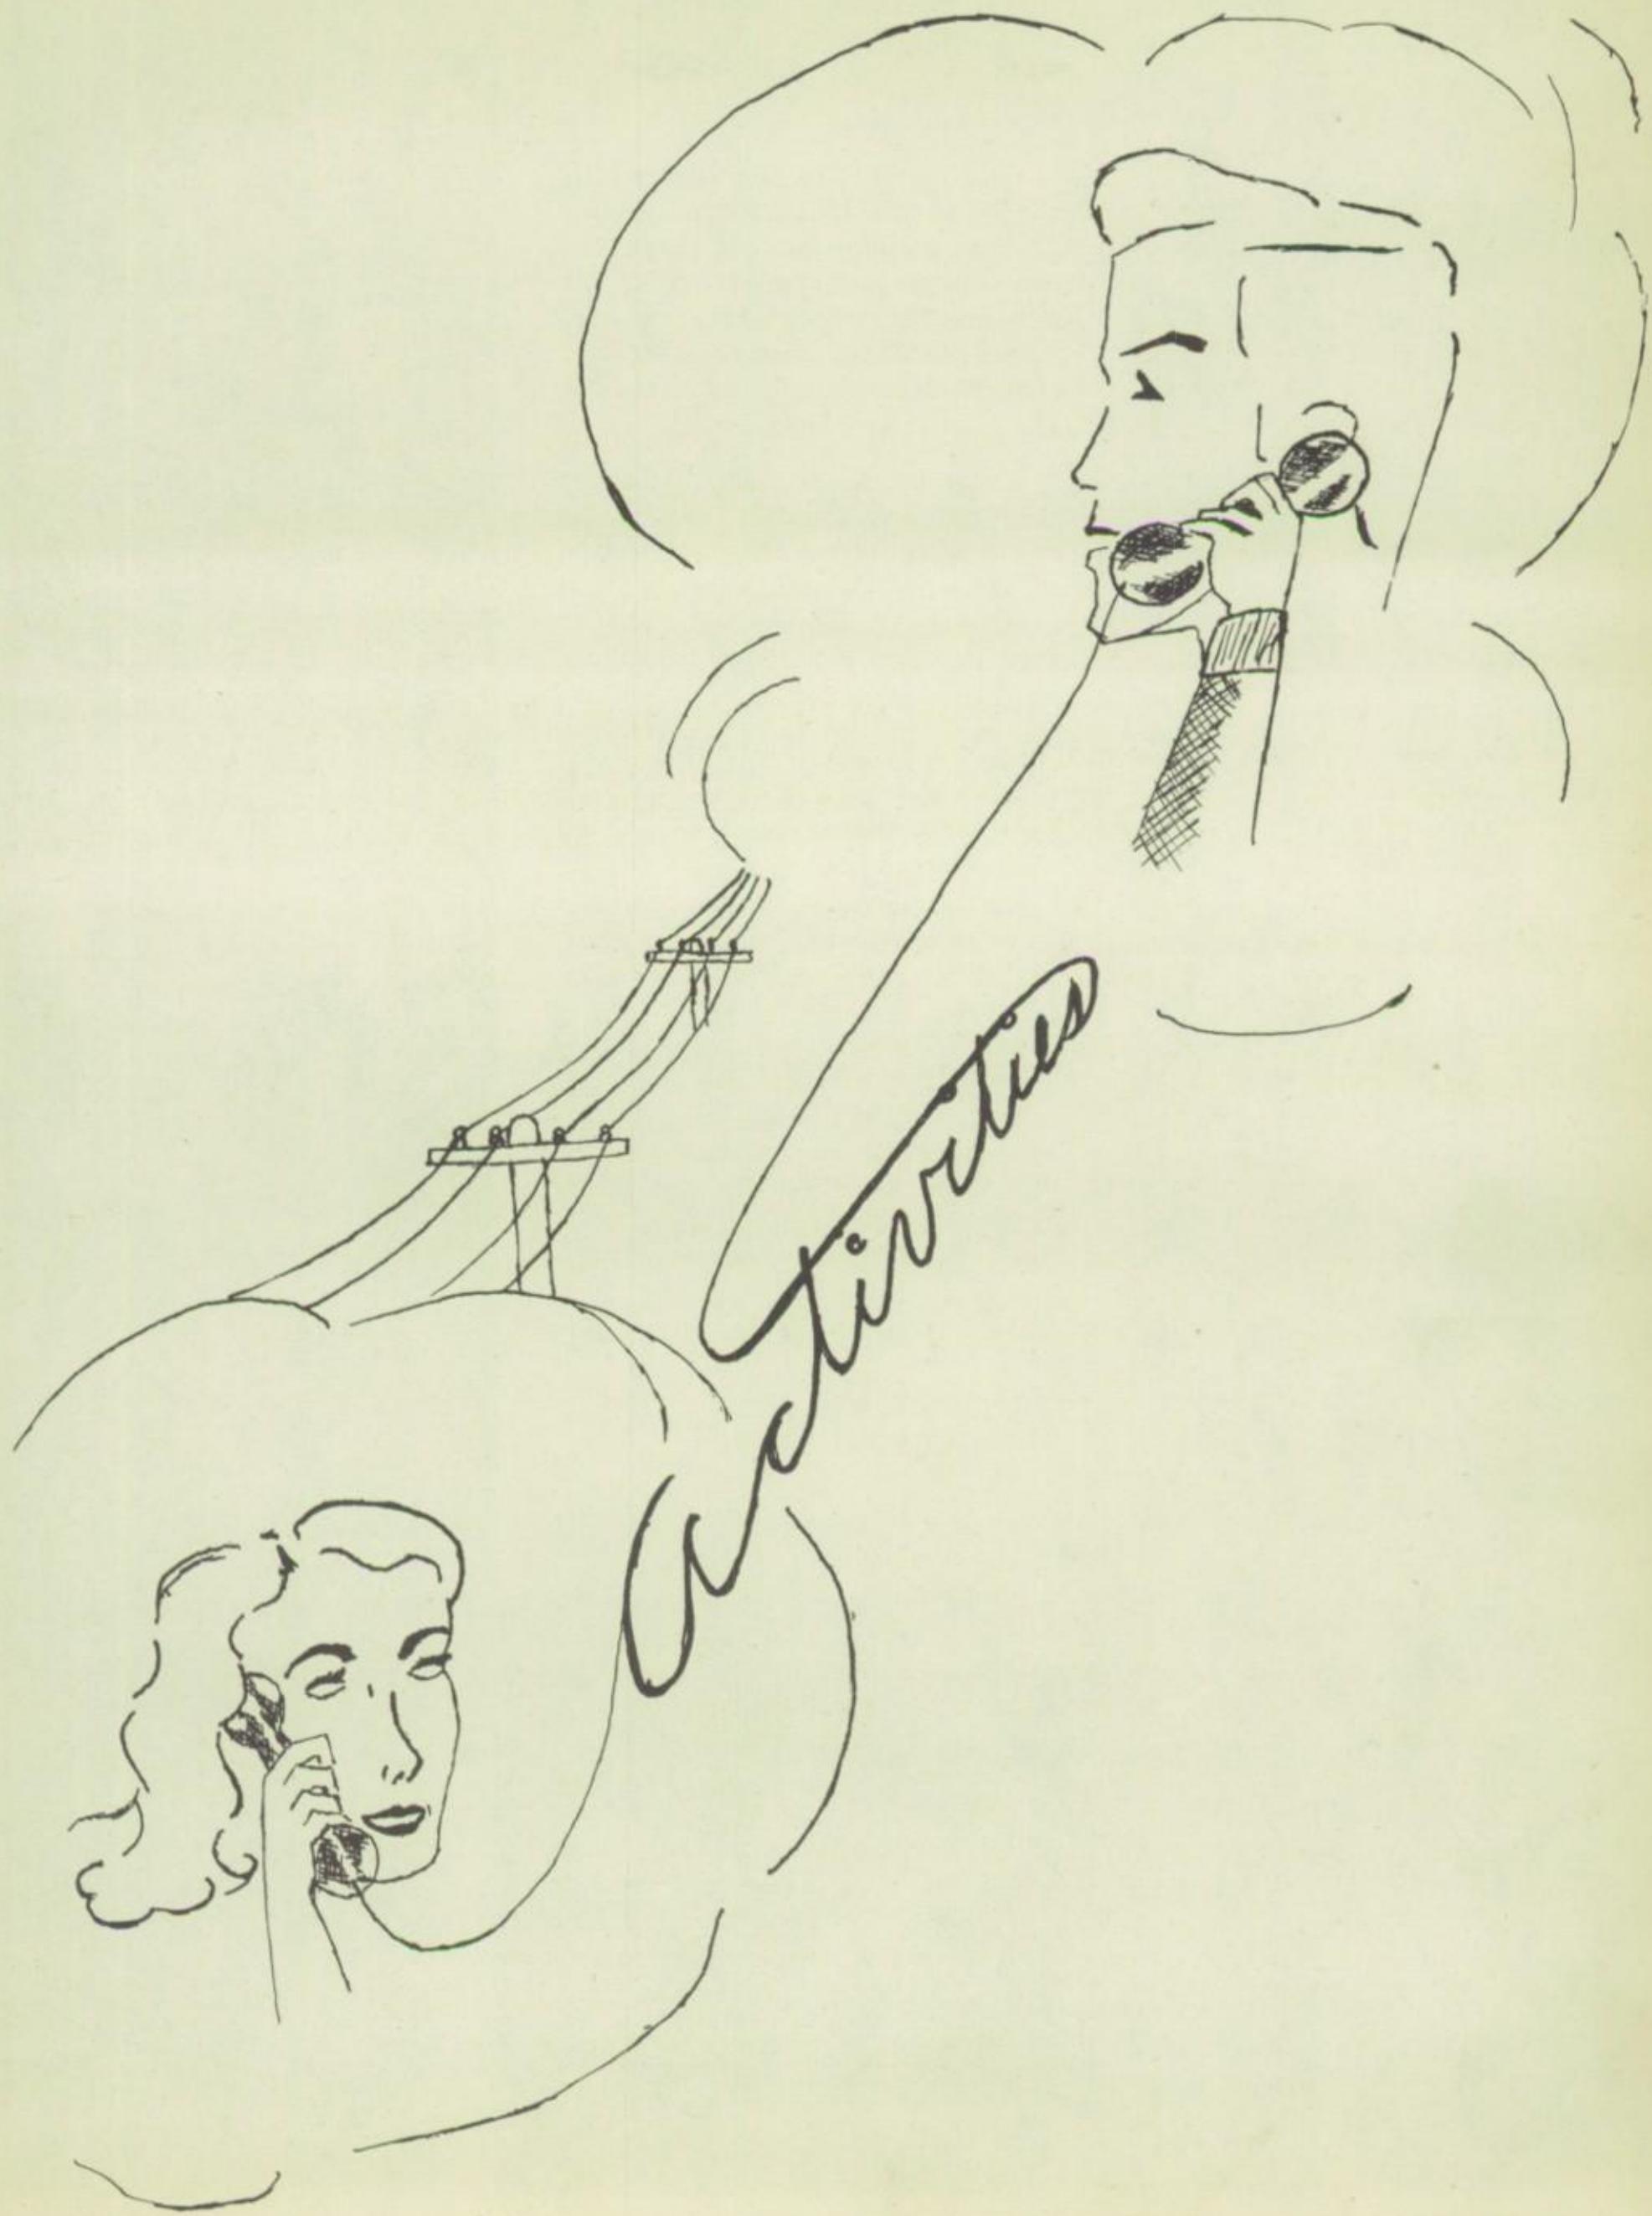

The magazine contest was held between the freshmen and seniors, and the sophomores and juniors this year. It may not be customary to say so, but we did do an excellent job of entertaining the winners.

The Annual Contest was also a big event of the year. The junior king and queen candidates were Malcolm McCallum and Dixie Wilkerson.

The Carnival turned out very successfully with everyone participating. Our king and queen candidates were Lawrence McLaughlin and Mary Sawatsky.

The Junior-senior banquet was held in the spring in honor of the seniors with the theme "The Hilltop Club".

The class officers as elected by the class were; president, Barbara Thomas; vice-president, Mary Sawatsky; secretary, Joan Umphenour; and treasurer, Rollin Spratt.

Hilltop Staff

Once again, having successfully completed the HILLTOP for 1952 - 53, the staff wishes to thank Mr. Seal for his untiring efforts as our advisor; Mr. Forsyth, for his wise management of business matters; and the patrons, for their cheerful and highly appreciated help.

We have tried to recapture all of the important activities and events of the school year. The co-operation of everyone has made possible the publication of another better HILLTOP.

The BLU-JAY, a yearly project of the senior Typing II class, came out on schedule again this year, with each edition giving a complete account of events that took place during each six-weeks period.

The BLU-JAY was published under the supervision of Mrs. Forsyth, and was edited each six-weeks by a different member of the class. The positions of the staff were rotated for each issue making it possible for everyone to serve in a new and challenging capacity.

We feel the high standard for a school paper set by this staff has been unsurpassed. We are confident in saying that the BLU-JAY for this year will serve as a symbol of the quality of work necessary to have a really good school paper.

The beginning of the football season here at P. H. S. was very promising this year. Interest in the sport was very high and the team was steamed up ready for action. Their courage was displayed when in the first game of the season they met a strong Arcadia team. Unfortunately we were unable to make a final plunge to victory and the game was lost by one touchdown.

The Blu-Jays did pull through with a win over Parker 19 to 13 and Uniontown 25 to 0 and then the closely played games against Bronson, La Cygne, and Louisburg. So ended another season for P. H. S. and the following Seniors: Harold Parker, Dee Bradley, Bill Heien and David Staton.

Basketball

FIRST ROW (left to right): O. Johnson, D. Mitchell, B. Wurtz, D. Bradley, R. Spratt, H. Parker
 SECOND ROW: H. Jackson, J. Patterson, M. Stuffings, J. Farmer, R. Hoover, Coach Stegge
 THIRD ROW: L. Hudspeth, J. Causey, B. Heien, R. Coburn, D. Staton, C. Fyock.

Coach Don Stegge and his Blu-Jays established a very impressive record for this season. After losing the first game to Mound City in an overtime, 54 to 53, the boys really got down to business and swept aside with decisive victories every thing that came along.

The Linn County League Championship was won with nine wins and one loss. The Linn County Tournament was won with an easy defeat over Prescott in the finals. Next was the District Tournament at Greeley with a first place win over Richmond in the finals. But the hoo-doo was just around the corner when in our first game in the Regional Tournament we lost to Baldwin 49 - 47.

The squad will lose, through graduation this year, three seniors; Harold Parker, Dee Bradley, and Ronnie Hoover. However, with the material from this years B team, which also had a very impressive record of not loosing a game in the county, next year's team will be out to uphold the record and precedent set by this year's team. Good Luck . . .
